

WORK INTEGRATED LEARNING

FOCUS GROUP FOR YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

LJS & Associates Consulting Inc. is hosting a dynamic focus group discussion on work readiness, what it means, and how to improve skills in the workplace.

What does that mean?

Together, we will tackle problems associated with starting a new job, discussing how employers and universities can be more effective at helping you succeed in the workplace.

The Issue Students want a good education that leads to a good, well-paying job. Employers want new employees who are ready to contribute immediately.

- Is “work readiness” different for these two groups?
- Does a co-op or internship placement actually help?
- Did you fully contribute your first day on the job - why or why not?

Speaker Dr. Lesley Cooper.
Acting Principal / Vice-president Wilfrid Laurier University, Brantford Campus.

Date Wednesday, July 20, 2011 — 5:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Where Fescue's Edge Golf Club, 18 Hagen Road, Scotland, Ontario.

Fee $15 (includes HST)
Networking, appetizers, complimentary drink, presentation from Dr. Cooper, topic discussion and Q&A session are included.

RSVP 519.752.5527 | info@ljs.ca | facebook: ljsandassociatesconsultinginc

Be a part of academic research.

We want your voice on workplace issues that matter.

REGISTER NOW: 519.752.5527

Why this is worth your time...

- Gain valuable contacts in a casual atmosphere
- Learn how to develop professional growth
- Understand how to be more “work ready”
- Guaranteed food and networking with other young professionals

For additional information please contact: LJS & Associates Consulting Inc. 519.752.5527 www.ljs.ca